

1873-015 Chancery Causes James B. Richmond vs Lindsey C. Roop &
Lee Co

Miller

CA - Debt
T - Property

To The Honorable Henry J. Morgan Judge of the County court of Lee County Your orator James B. Richmond, humbly complaining sheweth unto your honor, that one William P. Miller, was on the 21st February 1871 indebted to your orator in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, for which sum he gave your orator an order on one Lindsey Roof of this County, which order bears date the day and year aforesaid, and was by the said ^{Roof} by the name of L. C. Roof accepted, & so indorsed on the writing on the back of said order and signed by the proper signature of the said Roof on the day of the date of said order, ^{which said order is here with filed marked X} the said Roof thus became responsible to your orator for the said sum of $150. Your orator claims it proper here to state that the said Roofs indebtedness ~~arose~~, to the said Miller, upon which he accepted the order arose in the following manner. The said Miller, owned a valuable tract of land situated in said county, on the waters of Powells River adjoining the Poor House farm of said County and the lands of James Cheek and others, formerly known as the Joseph Miller tract some 3 miles East of Jonesville, this tract of land was sold by the said Miller to one Josiah Wynn and Charles Roof, who afterward, sold the the said lands to the defendant Roof and by an arrangement among themselves the said Linsey Roof was to pay the said Miller for the said Lands, thus sold by him and upon which he reserved by not conveying the same and still holds a lien thereon for the residue of the purchase money; now the said Miller having a lien as vendor against said land, and transferring, one hundred and fifty dollars thereof to your orator your orator is advised that he stands in the said Miller's shoes to the extent of his claim, and that a court of equity will substitute him for the said Miller to the extent of his claim & enforce the said Miller's vendors lien thereon - The object of this bill therefore is, to give a final hearing to obtain a decree against the said Roof for the amount, of his order aforesaid; to be substituted, to the said Miller to the extent of his claim and subject the said lands to the payment thereof; and to enjoin the said Miller from conveying the same until your orator's claim be fully paid - and to leave the said Miller to file with this court an escrow deed to said land to be delivered to the said Roof whenever the purchase money is paid - His prayer therefore is that the said Linsey C. Roof and William P.

Miller be made parties defendant to this bill, and answer its allegations on oath that upon a final hearing a decree be entered against the said Linsey C. Roof for the amount of the order, filed as exhibit X, and that your orator be substituted to the rights & liens of the said William P. Miller on the lands in this bill mentioned and that so much thereof as may be necessary to pay your orator's claim and the costs of this suit & that the said William P. Miller be restrained from, conveying by deed the legal title to said lands till your orator's claim be fully paid; that he be compelled to file an escrow deed, among the papers of this cause, to be delivered when the said lands shall be fully paid for and for all other further and general relief May your honors see fit &c -
